

CHAP. 28.

An Act for conferring certain privileges on the more advanced Bands of the Indians of Canada, with the view of training them for the exercise of municipal powers.

[Assented to 19th April, 1884.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide means by which Indians on reserves in divers parts of the Dominion, may be trained for the future exercise of municipal privileges and powers : Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:-

Short title and application of Act.

1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as " The Indian Advancement Act, 1884, " and may be made applicable as hereinafter provided, to any band or bands of Indians in any of the Provinces or the North-West Territories, including the District of Keewatin, except in so far only as it is herein otherwise provided.

Interpretation.
43 V., c. 28.

2. The terms used in this Act shall have the same meaning respectively as the like terms have in " The Indian Act, 1880"; but the term " reserve " includes two or more reserves, and the term " band " includes two or more bands, united for the purposes of this Act by the Order in Council applyin^g it.

When this Act shall apply to any band.

3. Whenever any hand or bands of Indians shall be declared by Order of the Governor in Council to be considered fit to have this Act applied to them, it shall so apply from the time to be appointed in such Order, which shall not be earlier than the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

Division of reserve into sections.

4. Any reserve to which this Act is to apply shall, by the Order applying it, be divided into sections,-the number of which shall be not less than two nor more than six, having in each a number of male Indians of full age, equal as nearly as may be found convenient to such proportion of the male Indians of full age resident on the reserve, as one section of the reserve will bear to all the sections; each section shall be distinguished by a number from one upwards ; the reserve shall be designated in the Order as " The Indian Reserve, inserting such name as may be thought proper, and the sections by the numbers assigned to them respectively.

Designation of each.

5. On a day and at a place and between hours to be designated in such Order, the male Indians of the full age of twenty-one years, resident on the reserve (hereinafter termed electors) shall meet for the purpose of electing the members of the council of the reserve ; one or more members (as may be provided in such Order in Council) to represent each section thereof shall be elected by the electors resident in such section ; and the Indian or Indians (as the case may be) having the votes of the greatest number of electors for each section shall be the councillor or councillors (as the case may be) therefor, provided he or they be possessed of, and living in, a house in the reserve, and subject to the provision hereinafter made in case of ties by an equal number of votes for two or more. The agent of the Superintendent General for the reserve shall preside at the election (or in his absence some person appointed by him as his deputy, with the consent of the Superintendent General or his deputy, or some person appointed by the Superintendent General or his deputy may preside at the said election) and shall take and record the votes of the electors, and shall have full power, subject to appeal to the Superintendent General by or on behalf of any Indian or Indians deeming himself or themselves to be aggrieved by the action of such agent or deputy or of such agent or person appointed as afore-said, to admit or reject the claim of any Indian to be an elector, and to determine who are the councillors for the several sections, and shall report the same to the Superintendent General,

First election of members of the Council of a Reserve.

Who shall preside thereat, and his powers, subset to appeal.

6. On a day, and at a place, and between hours to be designated by the Superintendent General or his deputy, (provided the day fixed for the same be within eight days from the date at which the councillors were elected), the said councillors shall meet and elect one of their number to act as chief councillor; and the councillor so elected shall be the chief councillor.

First meeting of councillors.

7. The councillors shall remain in office until others are elected in their stead ; and an election for that purpose shall be held in like manner at the same place and between the like hours on the like day in each succeeding year, if it be not a Sunday or holiday, - in which case it shall be held on

Yearly elections.

Provision in case of election failing.

the next day after which shall not be a holiday. In case of the failure of any election on the day appointed for it, the Superintendent General or his deputy shall appoint another day on which it shall be held.

Provision as to filling vacancies, occurring between yearly elections.

8. In the case of vacancy in the Council by death or inability to act of any councillor, more than three months before the time for the next election, an election shall be held by the agent or his deputy, after such notice to the electors concerned as the Superintendent General or his deputy may direct, to fill such vacancy, and at which only the electors of the section represented by the councillor to be replaced shall vote, -and to such election the provisions respecting other elections shall apply, so far as they are applicable ; but if the councillor to be replaced is the chief, then an election of a chief councillor shall be held in the manner already provided, but the day fixed for such election shall be at least one week from the date when the new councillor is elected : Provided always, that during such vacancy the remaining councillors shall constitute the council and may in case of vacancy of the office appoint a chief from among themselves pro tempore.

Proviso.

Meetings of the Council : agent or deputy to preside, his powers and duties.

9. The council shall meet for the despatch of business, at such place on the reserve, and at such times as the agent for the reserve shall appoint, not being less than four nor more than twelve times in the year for which it is elected, and due notice of the time and place of each meeting shall be given to each councillor by the agent; at such meeting the agent for the reserve or his deputy, to be appointed for the purpose with the consent of the Superintendent General or his deputy, shall preside and record the proceedings, and shall have full power to control and regulate all matters of procedure and form, and to adjourn the meeting to a time named or sine die, and to report and certify all by-laws and other acts and proceedings of the council to the Superintendent General ; and full faith and credence shall be given to his certificate thereof in all courts and places whatsoever: he shall address the council and explain and advise them upon their powers and duties, and any matter requiring their consideration, but shall have no vote on any question to be decided by the council ; but each councillor present shall have a vote thereon, and it shall be decided by the majority of votes, -the chief voting as a councillor and having also a casting vote in case the votes would otherwise be equal ; four councillors shall be a quorum for the despatch of any business.
